THE NEBRASKA MARSEILLAISE ALL NEBRASKA! READY! SIN EQUAL SUFFRAGE SONG

A stirring cry rings through the land,
The kingdom of the "noble free,"
Where through the ages God has planned
To teach mankind true liberty.

This glorious land our fathers won,
Our brothers died to hold it true;
Our sons shall bear the banner on—
Their country is our country, too.

Chorus:
O sons and fathers, hear the call;
One starry flag enfolds us all;
For equal freedom let us stand,
Together serve our own dear land.

O Justice, beat old barriers down,
And clear the way where wrong
has stood;
Place side by side the mother's crown,
And armor bright of fatherhood.

Nebraska, this thy noble task—
To make thy people truly free;
Oh, give thy own the boon they ask,
For God and home and liberty.

Chorus.

This song, written by a talented but anonymous composer, is dedicated to the uses of the campaign. Rouget de Lisle, who wrote the Marseillaise in the white heat of his passion for liberty, only intended it for his column of 600 volunteers leaving Strasburg for Paris. The column sang it through France and it was like trailing a flaming torch through the villages on their march. Our song is a march. It has the quickening beat of the Marseillaise. The actual march of the women has started not alone in France, but all over the civilized world. It quickens the intelligence and the pulses to keep step with innumerable rhythmic feet. It may very well be that this song will be the marching song of all Nebraska and then of the country. Leaving the past mistakes alone the words call on fathers and sons to make daughters and mothers their fellow citizens. It is a great song. It only needs the enthusiasm and patriotism of thousands of singers to make it live forever.

To the Horse Men

The Alliance Horse and Mule Com. Co. Will Hold Their Second Sale on Thursday AND Friday

July 30th and 31st

We solicit your business. If you have one or many list them with F. J. Was or Oscar Braman. Remember, a home market is better for you to sell on. Deal with men you know. We have absolutely no connection with any other horse market. No favorites, everybody looks alike to us. Our last sale was good, up until the wind hit us, with all of that we disposed of six hundred head.
